Family Name

Week 18 Assessment	True
1. When we say, "I believe in the Communion of Saints," we mean that we believe that there is a union, a fellowship, of all souls in whom the Holy Spirit, the Spirit of Christ, dwells. This communion is the union of the members of the Church on earth, in heaven, and in Purgatory.
2. In the early Church, all faithful members of the Mystical Body of Christ were called saints.	True
3. The Communion of Saints is the unity and cooperation of the members of the Church on earth with those in heaven and those in Purgatory, all of whom are united in the one Mystical Body of Christ.	True
4. There are four marks which point out the true Church founded by Jesus. They are four adjectives: one holy catholic and apostolic Church.	True
5. The Church is not only the family of those living in faith here on earth. It is a Communion of Saints. It reaches into eternity, embracing also all who are being purified to enter the Beatific Vision and all who are already rejoicing in the beholding of God's glory.	True
6. Our union with those we love who have gone to sleep in the peace of Christ is not in the least interrupted. Their entrance into life has not ended their union with us. Through their entrance into life, we too are brought nearer to God.	True
7. The Church is called the Church Militant because it is the Church here on earth which is still fighting against sin and error. It is also called the Pilgrim Church, since its ultimate goal is heaven, rather than earth.	True
8. We upon earth must pray for one another so we may all be faithful to our obligations as members of the Communion of _____. We must also perform the spiritual and corporal works of mercy.	Saints
9. The Church Suffering, or the Church Expectant, consists of the souls in Purgatory. This is the Church of all the faithful departed who are saved but are still being purified in purgatorial suffering. They cannot see God, but the Holy Spirit is in them. Being made ready for heaven, they will never again sin.	True
10. We can help the suffering members of God's family whose souls are being purified in Purgatory by our prayers and sacrifices, especially by participation in the _____.	Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

11. The Church Triumphant consists of all the souls of the blessed in heaven. It is the Church of all those in heavenly glory who have triumphed over their evil inclinations, the seductions of the world, and the temptations of the evil spirit. True

12. In the Church only bishops, priests, and deacons are called to a life of holiness. False

13. The Church honors the canonized saints who are already with the Lord in heaven because they inspire us by the good example of their lives, and because they can help us by their prayers. True

14. Every member of the Catholic Church shares the command from Christ to carry the Good News of His teaching to all mankind by word and example. True

15. When we honor the canonized (and uncanonized) saints, we are honoring many of our own loved ones who now are with God in heaven, because every soul in heaven is a saint. True

16. To invoke the intercession of the saints, including Mary, is really to pray that, together with them, we may grow in the love of the triune God, Who wills the salvation of all; it is to express the longing that the saints, living in personal love of God, will also embrace us in that personal God-given love, and will, by their prayers, assist us in obtaining benefits from God. True

17. The laity are challenged to make holy the actual world in which they live; they discover Christ as the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and then bring Him into the world. True

18. I/we attended the celebration of Holy Mass this past weekend. Yes
