WEEK 21

True

1. Baptism is the sacrament through which we are: (1) reborn as children of God, (2) united with Jesus into His death and Resurrection, (3) cleansed of original sin and personal sins, and (4) welcomed into the Church, the Mystical Body of Christ.

2. Christ Himself, through the minister, baptizes us and makes us holy with the gifts of the Holy Spirit and impresses on our souls a character or mark that cannot be taken away.

True

3. Jesus promised to remain with us, through the _____.

Holy Spirit

4. Through _____ the new Christian is united so closely with Jesus that he shares in Christ's death and Resurrection.

Baptism

5. During the rite of Baptism, the minister immerses the person to be baptized in water or pours water on his head while saying, "I baptize you in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit." The water is a sign of life and of cleansing.

True

6. Since the earliest times, Baptism has been administered to children, for it is a grace and a gift of God that does not presuppose any human merit; children are baptized in the faith of the Church. Entry into Christian life gives access to true freedom.

True

7. The Church has been given the sacraments, which Christ instituted, as the special means of continuing Christ's work on earth.

True

8. The Sacrament of Baptism permanently relates us to God as His adopted children, and joins us to Christ's priesthood and His prophetic and kingly mission.

True

9. _____ is a sacrament that confirms or strengthens the life of the Spirit which was given to us at Baptism. In virtue of this sacrament, the faithful are obliged to spread and defend the Faith as true witnesses of Christ.

Confirmation

10. Confirmation, which seals a candidate with the Spirit, is linked with the other sacraments of Christian initiation--Baptism and _____.

Eucharist

11. The sacraments reveal that (1) God desires to make mankind holy, and that (2) mankind desires to receive this holiness. In this way the sacraments give us God's grace.

True

12. When we receive the seal of the Spirit at Confirmation, we are prepared to (1) witness for Christ as mature Christians, and (2) defend the Faith and evangelize.

True

13. Incorporated into Christ's Mystical Body through Baptism and strengthened by the Holy Spirit through Confirmation, the laity are assigned to the apostolate, or the general mission of the Church, by our Lord Himself. We should recall this great responsibility which we received when we were confirmed: we have the task of bringing the love and truth of Jesus Christ and His Church to others.	True
14. The sacrament of _____ brings to the Christian God's merciful forgiveness for any sins committed after Baptism, and it brings the sinner consolation and peace.	Penance
15. The sacraments are referred to as actions of Christ because (1) by means of them, Christ gives His Spirit to all who believe in Him, and (2) it is from Christ that the sacraments receive the power to make men holy.	True
16. Priests offer the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the Person of Christ. The sacramental action is, in the first place, the action of Christ, and the priests of the Church are His instruments.	True
17. As God's Son, Jesus had the power of forgiving sins, and He gave His Apostles this power when He appeared to them on the evening of the day of His Resurrection (cf. John 20:19-23). This power to forgive sins has been handed down through the years to the priests of the Church of our day.	True
18. The sacrament of Penance helps us: (1) to obtain forgiveness from God after we have made a sincere confession, shown true sorrow, and are resolved not to sin again; (2) to be reconciled with the Church, which is wounded by our sins; and (3) to strive for holiness of life and overcome habits of sin.	True
19. When a Catholic has committed a serious or _____ sin, sacramental confession is the ordinary way to reconcile the sinner with Christ and His Church.	mortal
20. Perfect sorrow or _____ for mortal sin restores a person to the state of grace even prior to receiving the sacrament of Penance, providing he is sincerely sorry for offending God and intends to go to confession as soon as possible.	contrition
21. When we confess our venial sins, not only does God pardon them, but we receive an increase of grace and charity which allows for a better disposition for receiving Jesus in the Holy Eucharist and helps us to perfect the Christian life.	True
22. An indulgence is the Church's special intercession with God for the remission of temporal punishment due to sin which has already been forgiven.	True
23. We must atone for our sins even after they are forgiven, either in Purgatory in the next life or by acts of penance in this life.	True
24. I/we attended Holy Mass this past weekend.	Yes
