| 1. As Catholics, we firmly believe that Jesus Christ made His Catholic Church the ordinary means of salvation. We should desire to share the Church's fullness with all mankind. | True |
| 2. On _____, the Holy Spirit descended upon the Apostles in tongues of fire and transformed those men into the strong foundation upon which Christ's Church was to be built. | Pentecost |
| 3. As Christ sent His Apostles to teach and to be witnesses to Him in the world, so too, He wants the laity to share in this mission. | True |
| 4. There are four marks which point out the true Church founded by Jesus. They are four adjectives: one holy catholic and apostolic Church. | True |
| 5. _____ is a gift of the Holy Spirit which protects the Church's faith from error. | Infallibility |
| 6. The Church is one because it is unified in belief. | True |
| 7. In the Catholic Church, all are obligated to believe the same truths. Thus, every Catholic must mean exactly the same thing when he recites the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds. | True |
| 8. The two (2) sources of divine truth are: (1) Holy Scripture and (2) _____. | Sacred Tradition |
| 9. All Catholics are united under the same spiritual leadership because Jesus Christ made Peter the chief shepherd of His flock, and provided that Peter's successors, the Bishops of Rome, would be the heads of His Church and guardians of His truths until the end of time. | True |
| 10. We are united in worship because we have but one altar, upon which Jesus Christ daily renews the offering of Himself upon the Cross. Everywhere we have the same Mass and everywhere the same seven sacraments. | True |
| 11. By means of the Eucharist, Christ re-offers Himself to the Father through the ministry of His priests in the Sacrifice of the Mass. At Mass, Jesus and the faithful daily adore the Father. With Him they give glory to God and praise Him for His kindness toward mankind. With Him they ask God for His forgiveness and beg His help. We are one with Jesus in His Sacrifice. | True |
| 12. In the Church only bishops, priests, and deacons are called to a life of holiness. | False |
| 13. The Catholic Church is holy because it was founded by Jesus Christ, Who is all-holy, and because it teaches holy doctrines according to the will of Christ. It provides the means of leading a holy life, thereby giving holy members to every age. | True |

14. Every member of the Catholic Church shares the command from Christ to carry the Good News of His teaching to all mankind by word and example. True

15. The Holy Spirit preserves the Church as the Body of Christ and His Bride, so that in spite of the sins of its members it will never fail in faithfulness to Him and will meet Him in holiness at the end of the world. The Holy Spirit also helps the Church constantly to purify and renew itself. True

16. The Church is catholic or universal because Christ established it to proclaim all of His teaching to all men, at all times, and in all places. True

17. The laity are challenged to make holy the actual world in which they live; they discover Christ as the Way, the Truth, and the Life, and then bring Him into the world. True

18. The Church has been in existence since the sacrificial death and Resurrection of Jesus. This took place about 33 A.D. True

19. The Church is Christ still active in the world. True

20. The Catholic Church is the only Church which teaches all the truths that Jesus Christ taught. Many other Christian communities have rejected the sacraments of Penance and Anointing of the Sick, the Mass and the Real Presence of Jesus in the Eucharist, the spiritual supremacy of Peter and his successors, the popes, the efficacy of grace, and man's ability to merit grace and heaven. Some even question whether Jesus Christ is truly God. There is not a single truth that Jesus Christ revealed (whether personally or through His Apostles) which the Catholic Church does not still faithfully declare and teach. True

21. The Catholic Church is apostolic because it is able to trace its lineage in unbroken continuity back to the Apostles. True

22. I/we attended the celebration of Holy Mass this past weekend. Yes
